It is hardly a fortnight since we predicted that disturbances would take place in some of the Western Siamese States, but we did not expect that they would come so scon. Decidedly the affairs of these States ought to be looked after by semebody better able to supervise their government than the Siamese authorities.

THE SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST A POLICE SERGEANT.

Tse Chin, an acting sergeant in the Hongkong Police, was brought before Mr Robinson in the Police Court yesterday, charged on remand with being unlawfully in possession of a ball of raw opium. Mr Caldwell appeared for the defence. It was slieged that the defendant, on the 21st inst., went to an opium shop at Yaumati and tried to arrange for the sale of some raw opium, and that he afterwards brought a ball of raw opium there to sell, when he was arrested by one of the Opium Farmer's officers. The master of the opium shop and one of his fokis gave evidence as to the defendant's visits to the shop, and the excise officer stated that he arrested the defendant with the opium in his possession, just as he was leaving the shop. Inspector Mathieson, in charge of the Kowloon District, said the defendant was brought to the Yaumati Station on the afternoon of the 21st inst. about 5.50 by the excise officer, who charged him with being unlawfully in possession of the ball of opium produced. Witness cautioned the defendant in the usual way, and the defendant then made a statement to the effect that he left Teim-taa-tsui Station at 4 p.m., and was on his way home to Kaulung-tsai, when he looked among some bushes for a stick he had placed there, and while doing so came upon the ball of opium in question, which he was taking to Yauma'i. Station when he was arrested by the excise officer. Witness had heard that there was some friction between the water police and the excise officers on account of the police preventing the excise officers knowledge of the matter.

A woman who was called for the defence said she was gathering sea-weed on the A male quartette was a new feature in the afternoon in question and saw the defendant take a stick and a ball of opium out from among some bushes.

Mr Caldwell said the case was one that view of the serious consequences which a conviction would bring to the defendant, who had been a member of the police force for about fourteen years. He submitted that the story for the defence was at least possible of belief, while that for the prosecution was to say the least a doubtful one, and the defendant was entitled to the benefit of the doubt. One important discrepancy in the evidence for the prosecution was that both shopmen stated that the defendant's first visit to the shop was made at a time when, as was proved beyond all doubt, he could not possibly have been there. His Worship could not give credence to this part of the story, and he was entitled on that account to reject the

The Derby was looked forward to as likely to be one of the best-contested and most interesting races over run at the Happy Valley. There was anything but unanimity W. H. Forbes as time-keeper, and Mr of opinion as to the probable winner, and favour ranged between Materialist, Enticer, and Wild Saje chiefly, the actual winner having but a small share of it until his form towards the end of the race showed that he was not to be left out of the reckoning. With so large a field it was not quite up to last year. The course was only to be expected that the start would in capital order, but the 'mugginess' of give Mr Gore Booth a deal of trouble, and no pains were spared to give the growd a fair send-off, even at the risk of losing riding. There were some very big | valuable time. The poines got away very well together on the fall of the flag. Materialist loading, with Enticer sticking close to him. This order was maintained past the Black Rock, and as they rounded the village Enticer got on terms with Mr McOullagh's pony, the rest of the field coming all together, a couple of lengths behind. They came past the stand in this order, Buticer, however, having lessened the distance between him and Materialist to half a head. On going round the pond the aspect of affairs began to change, as the ponies were let out. It was at this stage of the race that Mr Sid's 'second string . Entertainer, began to attract particular attention, although even before this it-had been remarked that he was going uncommonly well and was exceedingly well managed by Maclean. AMERICA TO ILLUMINATE

CHINA. The American papers have long been distinguished for the remarkable truthfulness of their reports about China. Here is a striking illustration taken from the New York Times :-

The arrival suddenly of two distinguishad Chinamen in Chinatown, New-York has created a great sensation, not so much particularly because of their reputed wealth as on account of the neculiar mission for which they are here. The gentlumon's names are Wong and Fong, and both are conies kent well together till near the Rock, I middle-aged men. They were sont liere by when Enticer broke away and won easily a wealthy syndicate of Canton merchants

The syndicate representatives, Wong and Fong, said to a reporter that some time ago they secored a ninety-year contract from the Imperial Government of China to furnish all the public buildings and offices for inches ; previous winners at this meet- with the modern great American illumination; and in connection with this great contract they likewise own the exclusive right to supply the rest of the empire with their light. Messrs. Wong and Fong are big stockholders in this new enterprise. and were sent here to do the purchasing of all necessary machines -enough to supply only the largest cities of China, Hongkong, Foo-Chow, Shaughai, Nankin, Hankow, Ning-Po, Tien-Tsin, and Pekin. They brought a large bill of credit with them to the rich firm of Wing, Woh Chong & Co.,

From what the reporter could learn from their somewhat guarded conversation, the already made a large purchase. They are stopping at present with the senior member. of the tirm of Wing, Woh Chong & Co., 32 scription Griffins of this Season, 1889.00, Pell-street. > Mr. Wong says that the wonderful electrical lights of the Yankees simply took the people of China by storm. They could not be persuaded to believe at first that it was in the power of man to make darkness so g'orious, and they attribute it to the magic of the devils or some superhuman efforts of some incomprehensible being. When they had its principles explained to them by experts, the officials and the literary classes were completely nonplaced by the genius of the Melicau man. That is why they are now so anxious to have the great Yankee light in place of the little wicker bean oil lamps of the ancients.
